GenWell Community Partner Overview

Spreading the message of social health, together!

At GenWell, we believe that human connection is essential to our well-being. Through our Community Partner Program, we collaborate with like-minded non-profit and charity organizations to help spread the message of social health across Canada. This overview highlights how we can support one another in this shared mission.

How You Can Support the Movement:

➤ Recognition of GenWell:

Feature our logo and link to www.GenWell.ca on your website or partner page (if applicable).

➤ Leverage our Campaigns:

Join us in at least one GenWell campaign each year to spark meaningful connection in your community.

➤ Leverage Our Message:

Leverage our information and campaigns to educate, empower and catalyze connection in your community.

➤ Explore Learning Opportunities:

Consider inviting GenWell to support your team through training on the importance of social health.

There are no costs or formal obligations to be part of this partnership—just a shared desire to make a difference. We may occasionally reach out with new opportunities to deepen our collaboration, and you're always welcome to do the same. Let's stay in touch, celebrate each other's efforts, and work together to build a more connected Canada.
